Mayor of Memphis declares August 7, 2025 as FedEx St. Jude Championship Day

Memphis Mayor Paul Young will issued a proclamation declaring Thursday, August 7, 2025 as “FedEx St. Jude Championship Day” in recognition of the tournament’s longstanding charitable contributions, positive economic impact and the global exposure it brings to the City of Memphis.

The FedEx St. Jude Championship is the first of three events in the FedExCup Playoffs, the culmination of the season-long competition that is the centerpiece of the PGA TOUR Season. Played August 6-10 at TPC Southwind, the FedEx St. Jude

Championship features the top 70 players in the FedExCup Playoffs and Eligibility Points List at the conclusion of the regular season. The City of Memphis has held a PGA TOUR event every year since 1958, and 2025 will mark Memphis’ fourth year hosting a Playoffs event. Since 1970, Memphis’ PGA TOUR stop has raised more than $80 million for the tournament’s primary charitable beneficiary, St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital, helping to ensure patients’ families never receive a bill and can focus solely on helping their child.

Tigers add World Cup medalist Sára Karasová to UofM coaching ranks

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 29, 2025 – Memphis rifle has added one of collegiate shooting’s most decorated athletes to its coaching staff, as head coach Morgan Wilson announced the hiring of Sára Karasová as a graduate assistant on Tuesday.

Karasová, a 2025 graduate of Alaska Fairbanks, brings a wealth of high-level experience to Memphis after a standout collegiate and international career. A 12-time All-American, Karasová helped lead the Nanooks to the 2023 NCAA team title and was a consistent top performer across air rifle and smallbore over four seasons. She also made her mark on the international stage as an ISSF World Cup and European Championships medalist.

“We are thrilled to be welcoming Sara to our program this season,” Wilson said. “Her resume truly speaks for itself and we couldn’t be more excited to be adding an athlete of her caliber to our coaching staff.”

“I have known Sara for almost ten years as we competed internationally at the same time. She will bring years of experience and knowledge that I know will be invaluable and help continue to propel our team’s success.”

A four-time CRCA All-American in all three disciplines, Karasová left indelible mark on the Nanooks program and the collegiate rifle landscape. The 2023

A native of Šenov, Czech Republic, Karasová set career personal bests of 599 in air rifle (Dec. 6, 2023), 596 in smallbore (Nov. 14, 2021) and a 1,192 aggregate (Feb. 8, 2025). She tallied over 30 matches with aggregate scores of 1180+, including her record-setting performance at the 2025 PRC Championships that helped clinch the Nanooks’ fourth PRC title.

NCAA Team Champion and 2025 NCAA Elite 90 Co-Winner competed in 51 career matches, consistently performing at the highest level across air rifle, smallbore and aggregate.
