

Military, Law Enforcement News, and More...

We remember you, your service and sacrifice.
God bless you, your loved ones, and country.

From left: Spc. Kennedy Sanders, Sgt. William Jerome Rivers, and Spc. Breonna Alexsondria Moffett are the young patriots who gave their lives in a drone strike on January 28. The three U.S. National Army reservists were stationed in Jordan near the Syrian border when the base was attacked. All three were from Georgia. We salute them and give our condolences to their families and loved ones. (Photo/Courtesy: U.S. Army)

Ms. Arelya J. Mitchell, Publisher/Editor-in-Chief and The Mid-South Tribune staff

D.A. Mulroy meets with Tennessee Congressional lawmakers to discuss crime and crime prevention

.MEMPHIS, TN -District Attorney Steve Mulroy, along with other TN DAs and staff, recently attended the National District Attorneys Association two-day conference in Washington, DC. Prosecutors and staff heard presentations on best law enforcement practices and methods with TN Congressman on Capitol Hill.

As part of the National District Training Association, DA Mulroy met with local congressman, David Kustoff to discuss federal aid for victims, witness assistance, The West Tennessee Drug and Violent Crime Taskforce, and organized retail theft.

DA Mulroy also met with U.S. Senator Marsha Blackburn to discuss federal funding for victim witness assistance and the efforts of the West Tennessee Drug and Violent Crime Task Force.

District Attorney Steve Mulroy met with U.S. Senator Marsha Blackburn to discuss federal funding for victim witness assistance. (L-R) US Attorney Mike Dunavant, District Attorney Steve Mulroy, U.S. Senator Marsha Blackburn, DA Courtney Lynch, and Tennessee DA Conference staff member Brittany Lavalie. DA Mulroy and his team were in D.C. for the National District Attorneys Association.

(Photo/Courtesy: Memphis Shelby Crime Commission)

University of Public Safety releases report

MEMPHIS, TN - The University of Public Safety Institute and the Memphis Shelby Crime Commission have released preliminary 2023 crime figures compiled by the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) for Memphis and all of Shelby County.

After increases earlier in the year, the major property crime rate and the overall crime rate dropped significantly during the

Please see sports page 3

While in D.C. for the National District Attorneys Association Conference, District Attorney Steve Mulroy met with Congressional Tennessee legislators to discuss crime and crime prevention. (L-R) Tennessee DA Conference Executive Director Steve Crump, Congressman David Kustoff, DA Mulroy, and US Attorney Mike Dunavant

(Photo/Courtesy: Memphis Shelby Crime Commission)

The Mid-South Tribune's 29th Annual Black History Special Edition's 2024 theme is "Education, Economics and Entrepreneurship."

Watch for it in February.

Email military and sports news and photos to MSTsports@prodigy.net

B.A.S.S. mourns death of Western Kentucky angler Johnathan Brian

COLUMBIA, S.C. — As previously shared, two boats were involved in an incident on Thursday of last week, resulting in injuries, during the practice round for the Bassmaster College Series event on Lake Murray. On Friday, two of the three anglers who were hospitalized were released.

Authorities have since confirmed the death of Western Kentucky angler Johnathan Brian.

"We are all heartbroken to learn the news of Johnathan's tragic death," said B.A.S.S. CEO Chase Anderson.

B.A.S.S. will continue to support the ongoing investigation into the incident.

"Our hearts go out to Johnathan's family, friends, and college fishing community," Anderson said, "and we continue to offer our deepest condolences, thoughts and prayers to Johnathan's family and loved ones while respecting their privacy during this painful time."

Detour to the States lane on The Mid-South Tribune and the Black Information Highway. Submit news and photos for all 50 states to:

MSTnews@prodigy.net
MSTsports@prodigy.net
@prodigy.net
MSTbusiness@prodigy.net
BlackInfoHwy@prodigy.net

Welcome, Travelers!

Travel on the Black History Lane on The Mid-South Tribune and the Black Information Highway at www.BlackInformationHighway.com

See the 25th Annual Black History 2020 Special Edition and the 28th Black History 2023 Special Edition

Welcome, Travelers!

Share A Moving Moment
Adopt-A-Manatee®

1-800-432-JOIN (5646)
adoptamanatee.org
Photo © David Schrichte

Homeless Animals on Your Mind?

SPAY OR NEUTER TODAY.

Morrissey for PETA

