tected commerce in arms. New Mexico's governor and the state Regulation and Licensing Division have no authority over the federal agency's regulations. Therefore, any such state "inspection" would be standardless and disrupt and harm the business operations of licensed dealers who are regulated and inspected by ATF. Should the state attempt to inspect any federal firearms licensee in the state pursuant to this unlawful order, NSSF will immediately file a legal challenge to enjoin this unlawful conduct.

Grizzlies host 'Day of Service' on Sept. 20 at FedExForum

MEMPHIS, TN. – The Memphis Grizzlies announced their Day of Service volunteer event on Wednesday, Sept. 20, at FedExForum from 12-3 p.m., where fans can assist in multiple activities to support local schools.

The Grizzlies organization invites the Memphis community to volunteer alongside Grizzlies employees for the first time in support of three schools in the Raleigh and Frayser communities. Volunteers will help assemble school supply kits, non-perishable food boxes and bicycles while building fellowship with community stakeholders.

Fans who participate will each receive a special Day of Service shirt and a food voucher to the
