

2024 Class of High School All-American Fishing Teams honored on the stage of Bass Pro Shops Bassmaster Classic presented by Under Armour highlighting talented student-athlete anglers

FORT WORTH, Texas, March 21, 2025 — The 2024 Bassmaster High School All-American Fishing Team were treated to a trip to Dickies Arena to be recognized on the 2025 Bass Pro Shops Bassmaster Classic presented by Under Armour stage ahead of the Day 1 weigh-in. This is the first time in the program's history the All-American class has been honored on the Classic stage.

For the past decade, the Bassmaster High School All-American Fishing Team has recognized and celebrated the top high school anglers across the country. These student-athletes demonstrate outstanding performance on the water, dedication to conservation efforts and commitment to their communities. The 2024 class of 12 talented anglers continued this tradition of excellence and were recognized for this incredible achievement.

Since its inception, the Bassmaster High School All-American program has launched the careers of numerous anglers who have competed at the highest levels, including the St. Croix Bassmaster Opens presented by SEVIIN, Progressive Bassmaster Elite Series and even the prestigious Bassmaster Classic. These young anglers are the future of the sport, inspiring upcoming generations through their skill and dedication.

This year, nearly 300 applications were submitted from 31 states. From this talented pool, 45 students were named Bassmaster All-State Anglers, with the final 12 honorees selected based on their tournament success, conservation initiatives and community service efforts. This year, each All-American was awarded a B.A.S.S. Life Membership.

Jazmyn James and Gabriel Koletsi receive American Athletic Conference women’s and men’s Field Athlete of the Week Honors

IRVING, Texas, March 25, 2025 – Memphis field athletes Jazmyn James and Gabriel Koletsi were named the American Athletic Conference women's and men's field athletes of the week, respectively, on Tuesday afternoon.

James, a junior thrower who transferred from South Florida, won the women's shot put at the Bulldog Alumni Relays on March 22 with a conference-best 15.89-meter launch. The Westmorland, Jamaica, native also placed second in the discus with a 47.14-meter throw, both of which were personal bests.

Koletsi, a native of Heraklion, Greece, also won in Starkville over the weekend behind a career-high 70.74-meter javelin throw. It is the furthest throw by a wide margin in the conference this year, over 12 meters further than the second-highest recorded throw this outdoor season, and the fifth-best in Division I.

It is the first weekly honor of both of their careers, and the first weekly honor a Tiger has received since February 2024. Memphis will be competing again this weekend at the WashU Distance Carnival in St. Louis and the Don McGary Invitational in Kennesaw, Georgia.
