Citizens Committee for the Right to Keep and Bear Arms (CCRKBA) views Hunter Biden pardon as a ‘despicable’ exercise of double standard in justice

From The Tactical Wire

BELLEVUE, WA – The weekend pardon of convicted firearm felon Hunter Biden by his father, President Joe Biden—who had repeatedly vowed not to exercise this executive power—was a despicable exercise of the political double standard for which the Bidens and other political elitists are infamous, the Citizens Committee for the Right to Keep and Bear Arms said. “This pardon is an affront to all the people who have been convicted and or served prison time for falsely filling out the same federal form that Hunter Biden did,” said CCRKBA Chairman Alan Gottlieb. “Especially those who committed a non-violent crime as a young adult and were

“This pardon is an affront to all the people who have been convicted and or served prison time for falsely filling out the same federal form that Hunter Biden did,” said CCRKBA Chairman Alan Gottlieb. “Especially those who committed a non-violent crime as a young adult and were never told that they lost the right to own a gun and had no intention of lying...”

never told that they lost the right to own a gun and had no intention of lying. “President Biden lied when he said he would not pardon his son Hunter,” Gottlieb added. “To use a famous quote from Biden himself, the President is ‘a lying dog face pony soldier.’”

For months, the president or his spokespersons have maintained there would be no presidential intervention in the outcome of Hunter Biden’s legal troubles. The “first son” was convicted of three federal firearms felonies earlier this year, and then in September he pleaded guilty to tax law violations in a separate case. The pardon, while predicted by most Biden critics, still amounts to a political and legal sucker punch. “Joe Biden’s exercise of his pardon power is an outrage,” Gottlieb said. “He will leave office with his reputation in tatters, and his only lasting legacy will be one of deceit. His history of dishonesty is well established, so not even his most faithful allies will be able to gloss this over in the months and years ahead. “The man who declared in his pardon message that he has followed a simple principle throughout his career to ‘just tell the American people the truth,’ has shown he’s nothing more than a pathological liar,” Gottlieb

Basketball stars PJ Haggerty and Tyrese Hunter named to Maui Invitational All-Tournament Team

LAHAINA, Hawaii, November 27, 2024 – Two University of Memphis men’s basketball players were named to the Maui Invitational All-Tournament Team, PJ Haggerty and Tyrese Hunter, the tournament announced Thursday.

Haggerty, a redshirt sophomore out of Crosby, Texas, led the team with 21.7 points and 7.0 rebounds per game during the tournament. He went on to score 27 points in the Championship Game against #4 Auburn where he went 11-20 from the field and grabbed a team-high nine boards.

Hunter, a senior from Racine, Wis., lit up the start of the tournament going a combined 12-20 from long range against #2 UConn and #RV Michigan State. He went on to finish with 20.0 points per game while shooting 50 percent from the field and 58 percent from beyond the arc.

Along with Haggerty and Hunter, Johni Broome and Chad Baker-Mazzara from Auburn, Keshon Gilbert from Iowa State and Seth Trimble from North Carolina were named to the All-Tournament Team.
