Hauer tabbed as AAC’s Rookie of the Week

Anna Hauer

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – The Memphis Tiger women’s soccer team continues to dominate this season while racking up the weekly honors – this week with Anna

Hauer named as the American Athletic Conference’s Rookie of the Week. Hauer, a freshman out of Calgary, Alberta, had a spectacular match against Rice last week where she netted both goals for the Tigers for her first multi-goal game of her collegiate career. Hauer, who is now tied for second on the team in total goals, is currently ranked in the top-10 in the conference in goals per game, total goals and points per game. This is the first AAC Weekly Award nod for Hauer’s career. change, Deputy Johns was struck by two rounds, damaging his femoral artery, and sending shrapnel into his abdomen and bladder. Despite being critically injured, Deputy Johns continued to return fire as the gunman retreated into the house and then fled the scene by vehicle. In the end, Oklahoma County deputies and Oklahoma City officers pursued the suspect, who tried to crash through the security gate at Tinker Air Force Base and was taken into custody. Deputy Mark Johns showed courage under immense pressure on that day by continuing to engage the suspect to protect his fellow deputies and himself, after having sustained significant injuries. Deputy Johns’ actions are a credit to his department, the community he serves and in keeping with the highest standards of law enforcement. And the NRA and its members were proud to recognize Deputy Johns as the 2022 NRA Law Enforcement Officer of the Year. Titans cross ‘pond’ for showdown with Baltimore Ravens in London ... from sports page 1

by-play announcer John Sadak and analyst Derek Rackley have the call.

TITANS HEAD TO LONDON FOR SECOND TIME, LOOK TO EVEN RECORD As the Houston Oilers, the franchise made international preseason appearances in Tokyo (Tokyo Dome, 1992) and Mexico City (Stadium Azteca, 1994). But the Titans' first and only other international game in the regular season took place at London's Wembley Stadium in 2018, Mike Vrabel's first year as head coach. They faced the Los Angeles Chargers and were edged by a final score of 20-19 after the Chargers thwarted a two-point conversion attempt by the Titans with 31 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter. Five players remain on the current Titans roster who were with the team for its last trip to London in 2018: running back Derrick Henry, offensive lineman Corey Levin, safety Kevin Byard, outside linebacker Harold Landry III and current practice squad defensive back Dane Cruikshank. Against the Ravens, the Titans are looking for their first win of the season away from Nissan Stadium. Last week they traveled to Indianapolis and fell to the division-rival Colts by a final score of 23-16. Third-round rookie running back Tyjae Spears scored their only touchdown of the day on a 19-yard run, and Nick Folk added three field goals. Wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins led the team in Indianapolis with eight receptions for 140 yards in the 150th game of his career. He notched his 40th career 100-yard receiving game (41st including postseason) and the most receiving yards by a Titans player in a game since A.J. Brown's 145 yards against San Francisco on Dec. 23, 2021. Henry moved into second place in franchise history in career scrimmage yards (10,008), surpassing Chris Johnson's total with the team (9,968) and putting him behind only Eddie George (12,153). The accomplishment came one week after Henry moved in front of Earl Campbell for second place on the team's all-time rushing list (8,663 yards), behind only George (10,009). The Ravens are led by John Har-baugh, who is in his 16th season as head coach. Harbaugh, the 2019 NFL Coach of the Year, has led Baltimore to 10 playoff berths and a Super Bowl title (2012). He is the NFL's third-longest-tenured head coach behind only Bill Belichick (24 seasons) and Mike Tomlin (17). Quarterback Lamar Jackson is in his sixth NFL season since the Ravens selected him out of the University of Louisville in the first round of the 2018 NFL Draft. The two-time Pro Bowl selection and 2019 NFL MVP has completed four touchdown passes and rushed for four more touchdowns in 2023. Last week the Ravens traveled to Pittsburgh and fell by a final score of 17-10. The Steelers scored the final 17 points of the afternoon, including 14 in the final quarter.

Memphis Grizzlies Foundation donates over $600,000 in grants to 18 recipients MEMPHIS, TN– The Memphis Grizzlies Foundation announced the donation of more than $600,000 in grants to 18 organizations across the Mid-South. The grants will be presented tonight during an on-court presentation at the Grizzlies preseason game against the Milwaukee Bucks, which tips-off at 7 p.m. at FedExForum. With the addition of this year’s grant recipients, the Memphis Grizzlies Foundation has donated over $53.9 million to Mid-South non-profit organizations since it was founded in 2001. The Memphis Grizzlies Foundation is a non-profit organization dedicated to harnessing the power and promise of sport to transform lives through mentoring. The Foundation is focused on funding and creating youth mentoring and development programs that help students discover and meet their potential.

All 18 organizations are members of MENTOR Memphis Grizzlies (MMG), a Memphis Grizzlies Foundation program that unites a broad range of local community organizations, businesses and civic leaders to promote, support and advocate youth mentoring. Each grant is designed to support organizations in specific areas of programs, including first-year implementation of new adult-to-youth mentoring programs, expansion of established programs to under-served areas, enhancements for established quality mentoring programs and development for youth and mentoring practitioners. A list of the 18 organizations receiving grants is below:

- First Year Implementation Grant
- UCAN of Memphis
- Professional Development Grant
- Exquisite Pearls of Excellence
- Memphis Youth Arts Initiative
- Program Expansion Grant

- Grizzlies Preparatory Charter School
- New Ballet Ensemble
- REACH Memphis
- Refugee Empowerment Program
- Youth Villages
- Program Enhancement Grant
- Beautiful Spirited Women
- Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Mid-South
- The Gentlemen’s League
- The Hope Center
- Indie Memphis
- Juvenile Intervention and Faith-Based Follow-Up (JIFF)
- Memphis Inner City Rugby
- Peer Power Streets Ministries

World Relief ABOUT THE MEMPHIS GRIZZLIES FOUNDATION: Harnessing the power of sport to transform lives, the Memphis Grizzlies Foundation is dedicated to closing the Opportunity Gap for children in underserved communities and, since 2004, has focused on finding, funding and creating youth mentoring and development programs that prepare students for success in college and career.

Through the Foundation, the Grizzlies have invested over $53.9 million in schools, community organizations and innovative projects that give students the tools to achieve their full potential. In 2012, the team earned the prestigious Beyond Sport Sports Team of the Year award in acknowledgment of its commitment to meaningful community service. The team was named to the 2013 President’s Council on Fitness, Sports & Nutrition. In 2017, the Foundation was named a finalist for ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year.
