Bill Strings to make FedExForum debut; Tickets now on sale

– General Public Onsale Friday, June 14, at 10 a.m. -

MEMPHIS, TN – Grammy Award-winning singer, songwriter and musician Billy Strings announced additional dates on his 2024 Tour, which includes FedExForum for two consecutive nights on Friday, Dec. 6, and Saturday, Dec. 7.

Tickets for the shows will go on sale to the general public at 10 a.m. on Friday, June 14, and are available through Ticketmaster or the FedExForum Box Office. An exclusive FedExForum presale will be available from 10 a.m.-10 p.m. on Thursday, June 13, for current Memphis Grizzlies MVP Season Ticket Members, recipients of FedExForum Event Alert e-mails and texts and subscribers of Grizzlies e-News.

Now based in Nashville, Tenn., Strings is known as one of music's most compelling artists. Since his 2017 debut, he has been awarded Best Bluegrass Album at the 63rd Grammy Awards, Artist of the Year at the 2023 and 2022 Americana Music Awards, Entertainer of the Year at the 2023, 2022 and 2021 International Bluegrass Music Awards, Best New Headliner at the 2022 Pollstar Awards and Breakthrough Artist of the Pandemic at the 2021 Pollstar Awards, among several other accolades.

Strings has performed on “The Late Show with Stephen Colbert,” “Jimmy Kimmel Live,” “Austin City Limits on PBS” and “Bluegrass Underground,” as well as countless sold-out shows worldwide. His first live album, Billy Strings Live Vol. 1, will be released on July 12 on Reprise Records.

FedExForum has a clear bag policy that limits the size and types of bags that may be brought into the venue for all events. Only clear bags made of plastic, vinyl, or PVC no larger than 6x8x2 inches will be allowed inside FedExForum. Clear bags may not have an all-over print or decoration that prohibits full view of its contents. Clear bags may contain a strap, but metal or chain straps are prohibited. Guests will be limited to one (1) clear bag per person. For more information, visit fedexforum.com/arena-policy-updates.

are also at an increased risk as described above. Additionally, a family history may indicate an inherited or genetic factor that increases risk. Yet, most prostate cancers occur in men without a family history.

In an effort to spread the word to the Black community about the importance of early detection for prostate cancer, Pfizer has provided funding to ACS in support of the launch of "Change the Odds: Uniting to Improve Cancer Outcomes™," a new initiative to start creating change where it is most urgently needed: in communities disproportionately impacted by breast and prostate cancer. The initiative will raise awareness of no- and low-cost screening, enhance access to support and navigation services and provide general information about clinical trial opportunities, including culturally and linguistically diverse resources.
